Terms and Conditions

Data Processing Consent

By ticking this box below, I consent to the Design Council (the event organizer) and its affiliates (Stitch by ConnectionCrew) to hold my personal data for the purposes of registration for this Festival (e.g. your name, company, email address, and registration details). Stitch by ConnectionCrew is engaged by the Design Council to organize and administer events on its behalf. The personal data that you provide will be used for the purpose of organizing and administering the event, such as the transmission of electronic reminders, and for the purpose of customer relationship engagement and record-keeping in accordance with the Stitch by ConnectionCrew compliance requirements, which you can find in the Privacy Policy.

By registering for this event, you are accepting the Stitch by ConnectionCrew Privacy Policy and consent to receiving registration specific, and technical support communications only. Stitch by ConnectionCrew will ensure that your email address is only used to share materials that it considers appropriate, relevant in relation to your participation in this event and it will not be passed to any external company. If you agree that the information you provide may be used in this way, it will be governed by the Privacy Policy at Stitch by ConnectionCrew.
